Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain.

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

People have always had disagreements about Donald Trump and what outcomes will come out of this presidency. This needs to stop, we as a nation now need to come together and support whoever runs as president and let him/her do their job. We do have an immigration problem and everyone who voted for him wants that to change. These issues have sprung up now because our president has already proceeded to make this change happen for the better of our country. Yes, this has created a separation between people in our country, I wish it hasn't but people don't care about the back story. They let the dirty publicity cloud their judgement and form biased opinions. I hope soon we can move forward and be able to join as a nation for a better future.
